

A Gathering of People Playing for the Joy of it.

"Chamber music should be played, almost, by amateurs rather than by professionals.. Naturally the professional string quartet is an amazing achievement, but the civilization that I would love to know rests on amateur performance, on those innumerable small groups that gather in private homes . " Yehudi Menuhin

BLUE LAKE FINE ARTS CAMP

Presents

CHAMBER MUSIC FOR FUN

(For Adults)

COME AND SHARE THE JOY OF MUSIC MAKING IN A WILDERNESS SETTING.

Adult string players are invited to enjoy five days of chamber music at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp. Learn to play the literature in a relaxed environment.

GET OUT THAT VIOLIN, VIOLA, CELLO or BASS AND JOIN US FOR MUSICAL FUN.

There will be musical activities (string orchestra, coached small ensembles and Great Works) for all levels of proficiency. Everyone is welcome to come. If you haven't played for a while and have been thinking you'd like to play again, here's your chance!

- SHARE THE JOY OF MUSIC MAKING
- LEARN THE LITERATURE
- MEET PEOPLE OF SIMILAR INTERESTS
- ENJOY A RELAXED OUTDOOR ATMOSPHERE

August 17 to 22, 2020

For more information contact:

Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp

Twin Lake, MI 49457

(231) 894-1966

or call:

Registrar: Mike Stanley (313) 719-6336

Artistic Director: Kay Alexander (269) 217-0687

Check our Facebook page: Chamber Music For Fun
Or the Web site: https://bluelake.org/adultcamp/chamber_music_for_fun.php