General Policies and Information:

Refund Policy: Written notice of cancellation must be provided to the registrar, postmarked no later than May 30 for return of all but the non-refundable $75 deposit. If written notice of cancellation is provided to the registrar by June 2, 50% of the total fees will be refunded; after June 4 there will be no refund.

Confirmation and Further Information: A confirmation letter will be mailed shortly after your registration is received stating your balance due. Further information about the camp, program and items to bring will be emailed in May.

If a Parent is Unable to Attend: Send the name and contact info of the adult responsible and enclose a notarized statement with the application releasing BLFAC and the adult at camp from any liability. Students who are 12 and older may stay in a Teen Cabin with a camp counselor. Additional recreational and social activities are planned for the students in Teen Cabins.
