A Gathering of People Playing for the Joy of it.

"Chamber music should be played, almost, by amateurs rather than by professionals. Naturally the professional string quartet is an amazing achievement, but the civilization that I would love to know rests on amateur performance, on those innumerable small groups that gather in private homes. " --Yehudi Menuhin

BLUE LAKE FINE ARTS CAMP

Presents

CHAMBER MUSIC FOR FUN

(For Adults)

SHARE THE JOY OF MUSIC MAKING IN A WILDERNESS SETTING.

Adult string players are invited to enjoy five days of chamber music at Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp. Whether you're an experienced quartet player or someone who hasn't played for a while but would like to play again, here's your chance!

GET OUT THAT VIOLIN, VIOLA, CELLO or BASS AND JOIN US FOR MUSICAL FUN.

There will be musical activities (string orchestra, coached small ensembles and Great Works) for all levels of proficiency. Everyone is welcome.

- SHARE THE JOY OF MUSIC MAKING
- LEARN THE LITERATURE IN A RELAXED, NON-COMPETITIVE ENVIRONMENT
- MEET PEOPLE OF SIMILAR INTERESTS
- ENJOY A RELAXED OUTDOOR ATMOSPHERE

August 16 to 21, 2027

Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp

Twin Lake, Michigan

Registrar: Mike Stanley (313) 719-6336
Music Coordinator: Kay Alexander (269) 217-0687

Facebook: Chamber Music For Fun
Web site: https://bluelake.org/adult-camp/chamber-music-for-fun/